

How to Locate a Form on the TexasLawHelp.org Website

- Find an available public computer. Use your mouse or keyboard to wake up the computer from sleep mode. No log-in password is required.
- Double click on the icon labeled TexasLawH... or TexasLawHelp. The icon looks like this:

- After you click on the TexasLawHelp icon, the following page will appear:

- If you are looking for forms about divorce, name change, paternity, child support, or other family issues, hover over Topics and select Family, Divorce, and Children (See red arrow.)
- If you do not see what you need, you can type what you are looking for in the Search box. For example, you can type "occupational license" in the Search box. (See green arrow.)
- Each topic has several guides and articles related to common legal situations (See example below). Select the self-help guide or article that most relates to your legal situation or question by clicking on the guide or article title, or by clicking Explore Guide.

Related Guides

FAMILY, DIVORCE & CHILDREN

A Guide to Representing Yourself in Family Court

This guide is for parties who do not have a lawyer and are representing themselves in court.

Explore Guide

CHILD CUSTODY & VISITATION

I need a custody order. I am not the child's parent (SAPCR).

How to ask for a custody, visitation, child support, and medical support order. For grandparents and other nonparents.

Explore Guide

DIVORCE

I need a divorce. We do not have minor children.

A guide for getting a divorce when you and your spouse do not have children together who are younger than 18 (or still in high school).

Explore Guide

I need a divorce. We do not have minor children.

A guide for getting a divorce when you and your spouse do not have children together who are younger than 18 (or still in high school).

Last Updated on November 11, 2021

Overview

Instructions & Forms

Articles

- Once you have selected a guide, click on the Instructions & Forms tab to view and print the instructions and forms. (See purple arrow).
- Review the instructions to be sure that these are the forms you need. Scroll to the bottom of the instructions to view and print the forms.
- If you would like to print out the instructions with all of the forms together, look for a link to the combined packet at the beginning of the instructions (See blue arrow).

Instructions & Forms

Instructions & Forms for an Agreed Divorce without Children

Collapse ↑

These instructions explain the basic steps in an agreed divorce without children. Each step includes a link to the form or forms needed for that step. Click on the step to expand it with more information.

Use these instructions if:

- you and your spouse do not have any minor children together, - and -
- you and your spouse agree about all the issues and will both sign the necessary court forms.

Have you read the Frequently Asked Questions and related Articles?

These instructions are part of this TexasLawHelp.org Guide: I need a divorce. We do not have minor children. Before getting started, it's important to read the Frequently Asked Questions and Articles included in the Guide.

WARNING! These instructions provide general information, not legal advice. It's a good idea to talk with a lawyer about your particular situation.

You can print these instructions to use as a checklist.

To print out both instructions and forms, click here (for opposite-sex couples) or here (for same-sex couples).

- If you would like to print individual forms, click Download Form on the form's icon. The form should open in a new window. Select Print. The form will print out at the copy center located behind the glass wall near the front of the Law Library.
- Note the Computer Number assigned to the computer you are working on. The Computer Number is taped to the top of the computer monitor.
- Tell the copy center attendant that you've printed documents from your Computer Number and that you're ready to pay for them. The cost for black & white printouts or copies is 10 cents per page. The attendant will provide you with the copies of your documents after you pay for them.